

UNITED STATES TAX COURT
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20217

January 3, 2018

PRESS RELEASE

Chief Judge L. Paige Marvel announced today that, effective as of January 1, 2018, Senior Judge Robert A. Wherry, Jr. has fully retired and is no longer recalled for judicial service.

Judge Wherry was appointed as Judge, United States Tax Court, by President George W. Bush April 23, 2003, and took senior status in 2014. He has authored a variety of opinions, including a number of important Division opinions. The Court thanks Judge Wherry for his excellent service; his contributions to this Court and to the Court's jurisprudence will be missed.

Any cases submitted or assigned to Judge Wherry that have not been completed as of the date of his retirement will be reassigned as appropriate by the Chief Judge.
