

UNITED STATES TAX COURT
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20217

June 17, 2011

PRESS RELEASE

Chief Judge John O. Colvin announced today that, to assist the public in identifying and locating orders issued by Judges, Senior Judges, and Special Trial Judges, the United States Tax Court has added two new features ("Today's Designated Orders" and "Orders Search") to its Internet Web site to.

The two new features and instructions for using these features may be found by clicking on the newly added "Orders" tab located on the Court's Internet Web site.

The Orders Search feature contains all orders issued on or after June 17, 2011, by all Judges, Senior Judges, and Special Trial Judges of the Court, except it does not include certain computer-generated mailings of certain form orders. Orders are searchable through the Orders Search feature by date, case name, case name keyword, Judge, or text search.