Respondent.)

ORDER

The summary opinion that resolved the disputed issues in this case for the redetermination of a deficiency was filed January 28, 2016. As of the date of this Order neither party has submitted a computation for entry of decision, although both are obligated and entitled to do so. Under the circumstances, it is ORDERED that respondent's motion for extension of time, filed May 25, 2016, is denied. It is further ORDERED that the decision entered in this case will reflect the amount of the deficiency shown on the computation for entry of decision first received from either party.
