ORDER OF CONTINUANCE

This case is on the Court's May 20, 2013 trial calendar for Buffalo, New York. It arises from seven years of deficiencies that the IRS determined Mr. Menifee owed after he apparently failed to file any returns. Mr. Menifee is cooperating with his counsel as best he can from federal prison, but the large amounts and numerous issues led both parties to agree that it made sense to wait until his release to try to settle the case or get it ready for trial.

The Court will put this on a very long-term status report track and contact the parties -- after Mr. Menifee is released -- to set a date for the first one. It is ORDERED that petitioner's December 21, 2012 motion for a continuance is granted in that this case is stricken from the May 20, 2013 Buffalo trial calendar. It is also ORDERED that this division of the Court retains jurisdiction of the case.
