ORDER

On July 31, 2012, the Court filed its Supplemental Memorandum Opinion in this case, T.C. Memo. 2012-218, stating therein that we would issue an order vacating the portion of our opinion at T.C. Memo. 2012-163 concluding that the appraisal attached to petitioners' 2004 joint Federal income tax return was not qualified because it lacked a valuation method and a specific basis for the underlying value. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that petitioners' motion for reconsideration filed June 22, 2012, is granted to the extent stated in our supplemental opinion at T.C. Memo. 2012-218. It is further

ORDERED that our prior opinion at T.C. Memo. 2012-163 is vacated to the limited extent stated in our supplemental opinion at T.C. Memo. 2012-218. It is further

ORDERED that the parties shall cause to be received in the chambers of the undersigned, no later than August 16, 2012, a joint status report setting forth the following:

- (1) A proposed trial date which is during the week beginning December 17, 2012, or in April 2013;
- (2) Proposed discovery cutoff dates;
- (3) The estimated length of trial; and
- (4) Any other matters that the parties think appropriate to include in such report, either in the aforementioned categories or otherwise.
