

UNITED STATES TAX COURT
WASHINGTON, DC 20217

|                                   |   |                      |
|-----------------------------------|---|----------------------|
| JESSE ALVARADO & MARIA DE LOURDES | ) |                      |
| VELASQUEZ,                        | ) |                      |
|                                   | ) |                      |
| Petitioner(s),                    | ) |                      |
|                                   | ) |                      |
| v.                                | ) | Docket No. 15059-18. |
|                                   | ) |                      |
| COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE, | ) |                      |
|                                   | ) |                      |
| Respondent                        | ) |                      |

ORDER

On October 2, 2019, respondent (the Internal Revenue Service “IRS”) filed a Motion to Compel Responses to Interrogatories and a Motion to Compel Production of Documents. The interrogatories (e.g. questions to be answered by the Taxpayers) begin after the six page motion and include questions numbered one (1) through (8) for which the government requests a written response. The request for production of documents begins after a seven page motion and has twelve (12) separate requests for documents. Under this Order, the Taxpayers, also known as “petitioners” in this case, must respond to the IRS’ questions in writing and must produce the documents the IRS has requested. Upon due consideration, it is ORDERED that on or before November 4, 2019, petitioners shall serve on respondent and file with the Court a response to respondent’s Motion to Compel Responses to Interrogatories and Motion to Compel Production of Documents filed October 2, 2019.

(Signed) Elizabeth A. Copeland
Judge

Dated: Washington, D.C.
October 8, 2019

SERVED Oct 08 2019