

Ministry of Religious Services

Ministry of Religious Services - Go to site >

About

The Ministry for Religious Services provides religious services for the Jewish population in Israel. The activities include marriage registration and ceremonies, supervising the kosher regulations for religious buildings and synagogues, cemeteries and burials, and developing relations with Jews in diaspora. The ministry supervises the religious councils and 'Kadisha' companies.

Last Viewed on 05/03/2021