

UNITED STATES TAX COURT

Washington, D.C. 20217

December 6, 2021

PRESS RELEASE

Chief Judge Maurice B. Foley announced today that Adam B. Landy and Eunkyong Choi have each been selected to serve as a Special Trial Judge and taken the oath of office.

Special Trial Judge Landy holds a Bachelor of Science in Chemistry and a Master of Science in Sport and Entertainment Management from the University of South Carolina, a Juris Doctor from the University of South Carolina School of Law, and a Master of Laws in Taxation from the Northwestern University Pritzker School of Law. From 2010 to 2016, Special Trial Judge Landy was an Associate Attorney with McNair Law Firm, P.A. (now Burr & Forman, LLP). From August 2016 until he joined the Court, Special Trial Judge Landy was a Senior Attorney with the Internal Revenue Service Office of Chief Counsel.

Special Trial Judge Choi holds a Bachelor of Arts, magna cum laude, in Political Science from the University of Akron, and both a Juris Doctor and Master of Laws in Taxation from the Washington University School of Law. In addition to time spent in private practice working on a variety of legal issues, Special Trial Judge Choi taught Ethics & Media at Sanford Brown College and was a Lecturer in Law at the Washington University School of Law. Special Trial Judge Choi spent several years working for Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITCs), having served as the LITC Program Director for Nevada Legal Services from 2010-2014 and as a Supervising Attorney with the Washington University LITC from 2014-2016. From June 2016 through September 2021, Special Trial Judge Choi was the Taxpayer Advocate in the New York City Department of Finance.
