MEMORANDUM

KERRIGAN, Chief Judge: Complainant, a pro se litigant, has filed a complaint of judicial conduct against a judge of the United States Tax Court. For the following reasons, the complaint will be dismissed.

Complainant alleges that in the underlying tax case the judge acted impartially with respect to documents submitted by the parties and improperly denied scheduling requests. The underlying tax record reflects no partiality but demonstrates that the judge's rulings with respect to document submissions and scheduling were merits related.

Cognizable misconduct does not include allegations that are directly related to the merits of a decision or procedural ruling, and a complaint must be dismissed in whole or in part when the Chief Judge concludes this is so. Rules 3(i)(3)(A) and 11(C)(1)(B), USTC Rules for Judicial Conduct. Accordingly, the assertions directly related to the judge's procedural rulings must be dismissed.

The complaint is dismissed.
